

Infoline honours employees completing five years

MUSCAT: Infoline honoured the long-serving employees who have completed five years in the service of the company, in a special ceremony under the auspices of S. Durgaprasad, managing director of Infoline and in the presence of members of the senior management. Twenty three employees were honoured on this occasion.

Infoline's HR practices focus on creating, nurturing and supporting people to meet its ambitious growth plans, through a wide variety of initiatives that cover all stages in the lives of employees as they train and hone the skills of their majority Omani staff.

As a pioneer in the Sultanate's Information Technology Enabled Services (ITES) sector, Infoline LLC continually has established incentive schemes that help retain, improve performance and productivity of their staff.

Durgaprasad thanked the long service staff for their sincere efforts throughout their service. Certificates and appreciation prizes in recognition of staff's dedicated service were awarded to each of the employee who had completed five years in the organisation.

He further emphasised that these awards are not so much for long service, but as a reward for loyalty. Loyalty and dedication are the keys to the success of any organisation. Long years put in by these staff are an ample proof of the conducive working environment provided by Infoline. This ceremony was held to ensure employees are recognised and appreciated for their efforts. He congratulated the recipients for demonstrating faith in the company, and standing by it through thick and thin.

Infoline has witnessed a significant expansion and has earned the global reputation as a leading BPO that offers best services and products with the dedication and hard work of its long serving employees. They were appreciated for all their sincere effort in making Infoline a leader in the BPO industry. On behalf of the members of staff that were honoured, Majid Al Balushi, thanked the senior management of Infoline on their goodwill gesture.

"This celebration proves the management's care and appreciation for its employees who began their career with the company and played a vital role in Infoline's expansion and the status that it is enjoying today. This event we are sure will raise the morale of the honoured staff as well as encourage the rest and motivate them to work hard."

Manal Bader Said Al Riyami and Maisa Mohsin Mohammed Al Balushi thanked the management on behalf of customer services, pointing out valuable support given by the management, helped staff perform duties in the best possible manner.
