

Infoline employees donate generously during Ramadan

MUSCAT: During the Holy Month of Ramadan, Infoline a leading ISO 9001: 2008 certified Business Process Outsourcing and IT enabled services company in Oman, organised a diverse array of charitable activities that were aimed at promoting community welfare and bringing a smile to the faces of the underprivileged.

With a strong focus on highlighting the values of charity, tolerance, patience and solidarity that are associated with Ramadan, Infoline organised a month-long calendar of humanitarian initiatives as a small step towards making a difference to the society. The donation drive was headed by a three-member team which included Majid Al Balushi, ZubairjanMiyadad Al Balushi and HajirWaleed Al Raisi. The team was responsible for creating awareness about this event among the others and also collecting donations from employees, coordination with various charitable organisations, ensuring handover of donated items, etc.

The donations collected were handed over to various organisations such as Omani Women's Association, Al Rahma charity team which helps families and low-income group people by providing financial and in-kind assistance. Team Infoline also arranged Iftar meals for the less privileged families and distributed water and eatables to the various construction workers during the month of Ramadan. Under its CSR, Infoline has been providing opportunities to economically and socially challenged members of the society for over a decade.
